

Information on Primordial Sound Sessions:

I calculate the frequency/vibration of your soul and give that to you as your Primordial Sound. What it does is silence your mind and take you into the dimension of experience. You get direct access to the Quantum Field, through which you get direct downloads through Source. This is a path of Self-Actualization. You are not only ascending your frequency but integrating it into your human self. The shifts in consciousness are happening in your daily life. The sound itself is very powerful and the frequency takes it even deeper. This is not external sound. This is a gentle essence given to you to repeat internally. You don't have to do anything because it will take over and you will melt into the frequency eventually. These primordial sounds are the original sounds of creation. It is a seed of gnosis or truth that is given to you to water daily. This is a daily practice. As you do it daily, the frequency gets stronger and everything in your unconscious that is not of pure light starts to be released. The sound is intelligent, alive, and conscious so it will orchestrate all the situations, people, circumstances to awaken your Divine Self within you. You start to merge with Source (actualize the dimension of Source within your Human Self). This activates your Highest Potential and your Highest Possible Reality. It also brings in the emergence of your Highest Purpose or Calling.

Primordial Sound in a group contains 3-4 people and the price is $137 per person for two 30 minute sessions in a group setting. The follow-up 30 minute session is usually one week after the first one. Private Sessions for Primordial Sound are $350 and consist of one 60 minute session and a 30 minute follow-up.
